

Are You Ready To Be A Dad?

New babies don't come with owners manuals. Lots of first time fathers have questions. How do I hold, feed, talk to, or play with a baby? Join us at Boot Camp For New Dads where we offer first time fathers - to - be a chance to talk with experienced dads who bring their own babies. This workshop is designed for dads-to-be that are in the last trimester of pregnancy.

Spend one free, 3 hour workshop in a casual setting just for new dads. We hope you will leave more confident in your ability to be a great dad!
