

Attributes of a Successful Penquis Volunteer Driver

Good Driver

Safe driving record and ability as a driver
Ability to find locations and follow directions
Ability to do paperwork required – Trip manifests and pre-trip checklists

Demeanor/Personality

Courteous, Calm, Good Attitude,
Professional in conversation and actions
Well dressed, clean, good hygiene

Dependable

Understands that dependability is critical to customers If scheduled should drive – unless emergency or has already pre-arranged time off
Communicates delays to dispatcher

Weekend drivers

Just because there are no dispatchers in the office,
DEPENDABILITY IS STILL CRITICAL

Safety

Vehicle is in Good running order
Your mind is set for safety
You drive defensively
No road rage
No speeding - contact office if not given appropriate amount of time for a trip
Drive only when you feel you have control of your vehicle
Consider weather conditions
Completes customer trips to appointments and home safely and courteously.